- The Start-Up Now program is a privately funded program. It provides entrepreneurial training to assist individuals interested in becoming self-employed.
- Participation is voluntary. However there are a limited number of slots and not every applicant will be selected. Selected applicants will be informed following the orientation. All the training will be provided at no cost to the participants.
- As the program proceeds there is an elimination process. Individuals participating must pass various levels to proceed to the next level as determined by the instructors, and/or a panel of judges. Their decisions are not subject to appeal. Participants volunteering to participate in this program must understand and agree to the following:
 - All program participants must register in Employ Florida.
 - Program participants that do not follow the rules of the program will not be allowed to continue. Because the program is of a limited duration decisions regarding compliance will be final.
 - The full program extends for up to 7 months and requires 15 – 20 hours of commitment a week over and above the session times. Participants volunteering to participate in the training must be able to commit to attending the training and have the means to support themselves during this time.
 - If selected for the program you may be asked to complete questionnaires or surveys about the program.
 - If you have questions about the program, please contact Douglas Sáenz at the email listed above.
